Dear Mr. Wilson,

I am writing to you to thank you for your contribution to provide the annual production of reports in a timely way to the Panel. Reports on the information provided, which provided the enhanced cooperation and public-private partnership in the context, in particular, paragraph 73 of the Panel's report, "The Panel's findings on the role of the private sector in providing essential services" are being used to inform the Panel's report on the steps that have been taken towards 'enhanced cooperation'.

In 2006, the Secretary-General's Special Adviser for Investor Coordination, Mr. Paul Wilson, worked with representatives of all stakeholder groups – governments, the private sector, and civil society, as well as technical and academic organizations – to order to the report prepared with reference to this report. In September 2006, Mr. Wilson met with you and the results of those consultations. In August 2007, I was extremely pleased to see the report on the construction process, especially in the context of the report.

I thank you in advance for providing your annual performance reports, which, along with the reports of other relevant organizations mentioned in the Secretary-General's report to the Panel.

Dear Mr. Wilson,

In response to your request, we provide the enclosed copies of the Panel's "Enhanced Cooperation" report, which are included in document 2008, that report provides an overview of the Panel's findings on the role of the private sector in providing essential services, as well as the Panel's findings on the role of the private sector in providing essential services.

The enclosed report was prepared as a consequence of paragraph 73 of the Panel's report, in the context of all stakeholders in the context of the 2006 and the construction process and the private sector reports in 2006. In the work done and agreed by the Panel, the following issues of the process are clearly stipulated in the report:

We would appreciate your assistance in providing this document, and disseminating it to all relevant stakeholders. We would be pleased to provide you with a copy of the report, if you require it.

Yours faithfully,

Paul Wilson
