NRO-NC/ARO-AC Responsibilities

The ASO Address Council consists of the members of the NRO Number Council. It is responsible for the organisational roles of:

- Undertaking a role in the global policy development process
- Providing recommendations to the Board of ICANN concerning the recognition of new RIRs, according to agreed requirements and policies as currently described in <http://www.icann.org/icp/icp-2.htm>
- Defining procedures for selection of individuals to serve on other ICANN bodies, in particular on the ICANN Board, and implementing any roles assigned to the Address Council in such procedures.
- Providing advice to the Board of ICANN on number resource allocation policy, in conjunction with the RIRs.
- Developing procedures for conducting business in support of their responsibilities, in particular for the appointment of an Address Council Chair and definition of the Chair's responsibilities.

Some criteria of Decision Process of the NomCom

- Does the Nominee actively participate in AFRINIC, the field of Internet protocol numbers, or other Internet governance organizations?
- Does the Nominee demonstrate the general background, skills, and ability that characterize valuable AFRINIC participants, or does the Nominee have particular skills or knowledge advantageous to AFRINIC?
- Does the Nominee's employment or professional activity create a material conflict of interest?
- Does the Nominee's participation in AFRINIC and other Internet governance and technical organizations demonstrate a respect for others and their opinions, including but not restricted to compliance with their Acceptable Use Policies?

Decreasing nos. of candidate interest

A question to ponder on?

- Is it not enough time?
- Is it that the posts are not of interest?
- Is it competence?
- Is it something else?
